

JOHN B. GODFREY

John B. Godfrey is a Director in the Federal Policy Group, a division of Clark & Wamberg LLC. In this role, he provides tax legislative guidance to the firm.

Prior to joining the Federal Policy Group, Mr. Godfrey was a reporter for the Dow Jones Newswires, with articles appearing periodically in the Wall Street Journal. There he covered fiscal policy and matters of interest to business generally.

Mr. Godfrey's market-moving coverage included tax legislation, defined-benefit and defined contribution pensions, federally-guaranteed student loans, and Medicare reimbursement policy. Mr. Godfrey worked regularly with Members of Congress, House and Senate staffs, and Executive Branch officials to track and synthesize developments in policy issues in a wide variety of areas.

Prior to joining the Dow Jones Newswires in 2002, Mr. Godfrey had written for Congressional Quarterly, the Washington Times and Tax Notes Magazine. In all, Mr. Godfrey has 18 years experience covering tax policy and Capitol Hill. He has served as member of the Standing Committee of the Congressional Periodical Press Gallery. He has won journalism awards from the Illinois Press Association, the Virginia Press Association and the Society of Professional Journalists.

Mr. Godfrey is a board member and Treasurer of the Washington Press Club Foundation, a not-for-profit organization which awards sholarships and funds internships to support equality and diversity in the newsroom and develops historical materials on American journalism, primarily through oral histories.

He is a graduate of Oberlin College.

Telephone: (202) 772-2486

Fax: (202) 772-2490

E-mail: john.godfrey@fpgdc.com